- Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: Twice in today's readings we hear, in reference to those who are married, "the two become one flesh." Significantly, we hear these words first in Genesis, where the first person becomes a co-creator, naming all the animals even providing a rib so that God could create a partner. In becoming one flesh, two people create a new unique entity. Let us reflect on how we have or can become co-creators, creating bonds and creating life from the impulse of love.
