- Msgr. Michael Farmer, the Vicar General of the Archdiocese, meeting with me last Monday lasted 8 minutes. The concerned person mentioned to things one concerned the way I sometimes joke and pretend to kiss a persons hand, it made someone uncomfortable. I get it and will stop this joking behavior. Secondly the issue of me getting mad and taking some things too personal in recent months. My health with the ankle/foot surgery and some family issues have put me under some stress; I apologize to the persons involved and will try to take better care of my peace of mind. Well that's it! Please pray for me, it will take a little time to forgive and trust that concerned person. Trust happens if we keep practicing forgiveness, each and everyday. Fr. Pat Madden
- The painting on display after the Homily is by Birte Suydan and will be presented during the Community Prayer Service Monday.
