. Intro- to the Liturgy of the Day: As we this final week before Holy Week the narrative of Jesus' life on earth builds to a climax. In the Gospels of the last two weeks, Jesus gave water to those who thirsted and light to those who could not see. Water and light are essentials of life. Today we hear Jesus giving life itself to some who has died. The giver of water and light is also the giver of life itself. Let us thank God for the gift of our Savior as we prepare for the final two weeks of Lent.

. Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word: Ezekiel shares a radical vision of Israel's future: God will burst open graves, reanimate the dead, and restore them to their land. Jesus puts such a plan into action, opening the tomb of Lazarus, bring him back to life, and restoring him to his family. Paul assures us that with the Spirit, our mortal bodies will have life. Listening to scripture, let us reflect on God's redeeming grace.
